MEET JOSH

WHY US?

With a combined total of 18 moves around the United States, we understand the value of community. Community is what makes any place truly feel like home and a strong community is difficult to leave.

We are passionate about making those around us feel welcome and we cherish the unique experience that comes with every new relationship.

OUR COMMITMENT

- We commit to support the goals of growth, retention and maintaining low turnover to the specific needs of the property.
- We will create an atmosphere that encourages residents to establish relationships and build community. This will happen through social events and creative gatherings.
- Our goal is for every resident to be proud to be a part of their community and to build relationships that feel like home.
